 KODATHI, OFF SARJAPUR RD

When nature is at the centre, life can be a beautiful dream...

Representational Images

Life can be far more pure

A space infused with greenery and quiet, presents you with the ability to carve out your own private space away from the chaos of the city bustle. Bursting with lush trees and broad canopies, the residential area resembles a serene reserve with many relaxing vantage points for contemplating the beauty of the landscape.

The lush foliage, achieved by a palette of trees, canopies, shrubs, and palms, along with the existing trees at the site, resembles a tropical paradise. Mana Dale is designed around nature. Creating a balanced ecosystem between urban living and nature, the architecture and the landscape have been visualized and designed to complement each other.

Enjoy walks, a laid-back retirement, and a transformational lifestyle surrounded by lush greenery.

Birds chirping instead of cars honking, clear skies instead of smog, gully cricket with friends instead of mobile games.
